

Still trying to think of something to do this New Years Eve? If so, you may be interested in heading over to Dantes Nightclub, located in the heart of St. Louis.

Here they have become well known for their lively entertainment and in particular their reputation for hosting some of the best DJs around.

This includes everyone from DJ Tiesto, Ferry Corsten and Armin Van Buuren to John Digweed, George Acosta and Benny Benassi.

Their New Years Eve event features two rooms of music, a live laser and light show, champagne toasts and balloon drop at midnight, and so much more.

The entire nightclub will be decorated in a fire and ice theme, including ice sculptures and snow machines. The décor will be sublime and there will be no sitting down when you're partying the night away on the massive dance floor.

DJ Irene will be showcasing her talents for the night, as well as Jeff Hopkins, Slante, DJ Identity, and K-Star who will all take turns showing you their multifaceted musical skills.

Dantes is located at 3221 Olive Blvd., downtown St. Louis. For tickets - and VIP table reservations are still available - you can purchase through Groove Tickets . To check out all the details yourself, visit the Dantes website
